1998 HAWK DEDICATION

During the eight years that Mr. Gerald Ladner has taught Social Studies at Hancock High School he has touched the lives of many students. His smile, his sense of humor, and his ability to relate to the students are just a few of the things we love about Mr. Ladner.

He has spent much of his life serving others. After graduating from high school in 1955, he joined the U.S. Army and served a three-year tour of Germany. After being discharged from the army, Mr. Ladner became employed with Mississippi Power Company as a lineman/trouble shooter. In 1976, he received his degree in Bible, History, and Science from Mississippi College and then recieved his Master of Divinity Degree from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. His ministry has spanned thirty-five years, including pastorates at churches in Jackson, George, Lincoln, & Hancock counties, where he served as pastor of Crane Creek Baptist Church from 1976 to 1995.

Gerald and his wife Dot have been married for thirty-six years and have two daughters, Becky Peterson, married to Dwayne Peterson, and Penny Holston, married to Tony Holston. They have two grandchildren, Sandra and Wally Peterson.

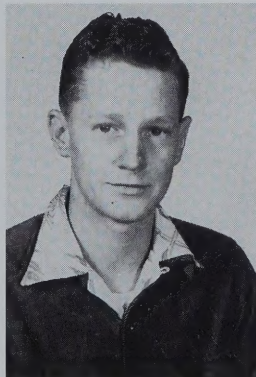

Mr. Ladner's hobbies include locating and visiting historical sites (especially in the Rocky Mountain area) and working out at the gym. He is also an avid reader and collector of history-based books, magazines, and videos. In 1991, at the request of Colorado Historical Society, Mr. Ladner and his brother, Monty, created and installed an ornamental iron fence around the grave of the legendary outlaw Doc Holliday. A life-long dream was fulfilled in 1995 when Mr. & Mrs. Ladner were able to tour the Holy Land (Israel & Jordan).

Mr. Ladner has served as an Auxiliary Deputy Sheriff in Jackson, Lincoln, & Hancock Counties. He has also spearheaded numerous blood drives for the Red Cross.

Here at Hancock High School Mr. Ladner sponsors the F.C.A.(which he helped to establish). He has sponsored the SADD Club and has been actively involved in the Mentoring Program.

Because of his great sense of responsibility to his students and community and his untiring efforts on our behalf, the Yearbook Staff proudly dedicates the 1998 Hawk Yearbook to our friend, Mr. Gerald Ladner.

A message from the Superintendent:

The 1997-98 school year in the Hancock County School District has provided students, parents, teachers, and staff with a fresh outlook for the 21st century. Through technological advances and innovative teaching strategies, students are challenged to become tomorrow's leaders as well as responsible and knowledgeable individuals. In addition, parental involvement serves to strengthen the community and school relationship. Lastly, the administration and staff continually strive to reinforce the quality educational foundation that has been established in this school district. Working together, we will achieve excellence in education in our schools.

Seniors. Seniors. Seniors. It's that magic word that signals GRADUATION and the end of our secondary education. For the 1998 Seniors, being a part of the graduating class means standing together and sharing a closeness that we've never experienced before. Though we are all unique individuals, we have become united in the hope of making our Senior year a memorable one. The friendships that we have made and shared inside and outside of school will never be forgotten.

With the start of our last year came a new attitude of being a class united, standing together. We did this not only because we were Seniors, but also because together we were reaching a new level in our lives. In an effort to accomplish our goals and leave our mark, we became involved in our schoolwork, sports, and organizations. We knew this would be the end of our time together, so as we lived out the last 180 days we tried to make the best of everything – our last Homecoming Week, our last football game, our last pep rally, our last prom...

We are a diverse class, many different types of people with just as many different opinions to match. But as we journey through this last year, our Senior year, we will all remember one thing:

"Together we stand, divided we fall – we're all in it together or not at all."

FAREWELL TO SENIORS

Together we stand,
We stand proud and tall—
We wonder about our futures,
We wonder about it all.

As we stand there about to walk
The walk that will change our lives,
We remember the past
And how quickly it went by.

All the effort we put into our work,
All the hours we spent in class,
All the times we got discouraged,
All of this it took for us to pass.

To pass a big challenge in life,
A challenge that was hard enough,
But we all got the best of it
And it eventually paid off.

So with pride in our hearts
And tears in our eyes,
We get extremely nervous
And start to realize.

That time is getting shorter
And it's almost time to walk,
To take that big step
And graduate as a HAWK.

But before we all go,
There's just one thing left to say—
The words that will guide us
In the right way:

Together we stand,
Divided we fall—
We're in it together,
Or not at all.

By Stacy Slade

MEMORIALS

Crystal Fountain

*Here today, gone tomorrow,
How do we possibly deal with the sorrow?
Crystal Fountain left us on December 5, 1997,
And now looks down upon us from heaven.
How could someone so young be gone?
She had her whole life ahead of her –
this seems so wrong.
Her smile and laughter could brighten anyone's day,
We love and miss her more than we can say.
As we stand together at graduation
and say our last goodbyes,
Crystal's spirit and strength will show
through each and everyone's eyes.
So at graduation there will be one less Senior there,
But in her spot we will save for her a chair.
Crystal was so full of spirit, love, and happiness,
She has made a big impression on her Senior Class.
As we remember her as a sweet and loving friend,
She will hold a place in each of our hearts
until the end.*

By Jenna Wade

Henry A. Spurlock III

*Have you ever met an angel that God has sent to you
For you to love while he lives,
With loving eyes, a gentle smile who looks a lot like you
I'll lend him to you for a little while.*

*Now God sends us little angels for a special kind of work,
To open eyes, to touch our hearts, to brighten up the earth.
He'll bring his charms to gladden you
And should his stay be brief
You'll have his lovely memories
As a consolation for your grief.*

*There's a purpose for their living, a purpose they must die,
Angels bring us that much closer to our mansions in the sky
So when God calls back your angel,
Just reach out to him above
And thank him for this gift,
For this angel brought much love.*

1998 HAWK STAFF

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR:

The theme, Together We Stand, was chosen to symbolize the closeness of Hancock High School during the 1997-98 year. But it especially stands as a symbol of this year's Senior Class.

Serving as the editor of the 1998 Hawk has been truly an unforgettable experience – laying out pictures, typing names, and meeting deadlines has not only been challenging, but also fun. We tried many new ideas this year and I hope you will find them a change for the better. The aim of the 1998 Hawk Staff was to capture a portrait of our school and the Senior Class standing together as one. Completing this great project could not have been possible without the hard work and cooperation of the dedicated Hawk Staff and our sponsor, Mr. Tim Shaw.

The Hawk Staff and I hope that many treasured moments will be remembered while flipping through these pages.

A special thanks goes out to the Hawk Staff, Mr. Gholston, and especially to Mr. Shaw for their time, effort, and most importantly patience.

Varsity Cheerleaders

If you went to any football or basketball games this year you had to notice the C-H-E-E-R-L-E-A-D-E-R-S. The 1997-98 squad consisted of a total of twenty-two cheerleaders. Of these, two members also performed with the band at halftime, and two members were football players who cheered only at basketball games. This year's squad had a lot to deal with— a new sponsor, a new captain, a new co-captain, and more cheerleaders than most schools. But they did it. Athletes are: Kyla Gutierrez (Captain), Jessica Schwartz (Co-captain), Jessica Blackmon, Kerri Feigal, Kacy Jones, Angel LaBauve, Amber Ladner, Tana McClendon, Melanie McManus, Keisha Moran, Tara Necaise, Krista Ray, Dorian Rivers, Jennifer Sams, Rachel Schwartz, Tonya Tabor, Amanda Necaise, Jessica Parker, Lindsey Barnes, R.J. Gonzales and Mark Williams.

CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

Foreign Exchange Students This year HHS hosted fourteen international exchange students, from Brazil, Japan, Germany, Russia, and Yugoslavia. They became immersed in our day-to-day activities such as block scheduling, Homecoming week, soccer, newspaper staff, and football (which is not dissimilar from soccer in thier countries). The exchange students all agree that American food is different but good. This has been a rewarding and rich year for all who have known our exchange students—hopefully they feel the same way about us. By Jenny Alfaro

JAG Jobs for American Graduates is an organization that helps students find employment and maintain a job to help secure their future. The JAG students go on many field trips to gain an understanding of the different types of work areas. Sponsor: Larry Smith By Daleary Cuevas

FCA The purpose of Fellowship of Christian Athletes is to present to athletes and coaches, and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, serving Him in thier relationships and in the fellowship of the church. Working through local coaches and athletes, FCA promotes unity in school, drug and alcohol free schools, positive peer pressure, and high moral values.

HAWK PRIDE!

In the making of this year's 1997-98 Hawk Yearbook, there is one special person without whom this book could not be complete. He has watched us grow through our Junior High and High School years from eager young children to mature young adults. He has touched many of our lives – whether by correcting us in his office, giving us one of his long speeches in the gym, or helping us learn the importance of being a HAWK. Nobody could have ever set a better example of HAWK PRIDE than Mr. David Kopf.

Hancock High Homecoming set Friday

Courtney,

You know we love you very much, but one thing we may not always remember to tell you is how proud we are of you, too. Even though we should say so every chance we get, this is a truly perfect time to tell you that we are very proud of your successes--of your skills and talents, of your hard work and accomplishments, of your dreams and plans for the future. But we're even more proud of the person you are inside--of the goodness, generosity, warmth, and caring which are such a wonderful part of the joy you bring to us. You are truly a special person, and we feel proud to be a part of your life.

Memories

*Memories are heartbeats,
Sounding through the years,
Echoes never failing,
Of our smiles and tears.
Moments that are captured,
Sometimes unaware,
Pictures in an album,
Or a lock of hair.*

*Images that linger,
Deep within the mind,
Bits of verse we cherished
Once upon a time.
Through the musty hallways,
Of the days we knew,
Ever comes the vision,
Beautiful and true.*

*Memories are roses
Blooming evermore,
Full of fragrant sweetness,
Never known before.
Life must have a reason,
Goals for which to strive,
Memories are lights that burn
